S.F. LANDS BIG DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION

Democrats Play G. O. P. Senators For Holding Up Peace—No Need For U. S. To Finance Europe—Women Unsafe In Oakland—Landon Defines His Stand On Labor—Bay News

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—San Francisco was selected today by the Democratic National Committee, in session here, as the place for the party's 1920 national convention.

After "whispering" votes had been cast, Kansas City and other cities withdrew and the vote for San Francisco was unanimous. Monday, June 22, was fixed as the convention date.

Chicago was the first to present its claims for the national convention, addresses of invitation being made by former Mayor Carter Harrison, former Senator James Hamilton Lewis and Roger Sullivan.

Referring to the local differences in Democratic politics in Chicago, Harrison said all of the factions there were united in asking for the convention.

The peace treaty came to the front when anti-appellate Senator Lewis declared the paramount issue in the campaign would be foreign affairs and that the Republicans were seeking to "array" the foreign born citizens against America.

SAN FRANCISCO OFFER
Landon B. Dockweiler of California, nominating San Francisco, offered a guarantee of $125,000 for expenses, the free use of the Exposition Auditorium, seating from 15,000 to 18,000, and of additional funds for entertainment purposes.

San Francisco asked for the convention for the first time, Dockweiler said, as a token of appreciation of what the Pacific Coast did in the last election.

The claims of San Francisco were seconded by Miss M. E. Foy, California associate delegate, and J. Bruce Kreyer, Montana, vice-chairman of the national committee. Miss Foy said that the women of the country, awake to the responsibilities of citizenship and realizing the existing threat in the nation, "are searching both parties to see what they stand for."

"We, the women of the Pacific Coast, are under the tutelage of Woodrow Wilson," she said.

THOUGHT PELLETS

The price of success is often the power to enjoy it. Inasmuch as don't even allow sleep when it's time to get up. Time is to miss trains with, and buy things on. Ladies, darn the socks otherwise than verbally. Carranza needs a shave and may get a close one. Silver lining: H. C. L. cures indigestion. It isn't moonshine—it's bottled sunshine. Some contractors contract mostly debts. Many get half stewed because they run out of money. The only thing we know of to keep bills down is a paper weight. "Twaddle" is the kind of argument advanced by the other side.

INTERESTING MEETING

Wesley Matrons entertained yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Mitchell, 635 Sixth street. Forty persons were served with dainty refreshments. Gladys Bonner gave a reading, also Mrs. Roberts. The announcement of the coming wedding of Mrs. Cora Erwald and William Edward Wessner was a surprise and the society wish them well.

DESPERATE CRIMINAL

CAUGHT AT OAKLAND

In a desperate battle which almost completely wrecked the Newport case on Broadway, near First street, John Franklin Kendall, alias John Renstad, 25, escaped convict, burglar and confessed attempted murderer of a San Francisco policeman, was captured this morning by Patrolman J. J. Murphy of the Oakland police force, after the desperado twice attempted to kill the intrepid policeman by firing point blank at him. Both shots missed Murphy by but a few inches.

LONG BATTLE AGAINST THE HARBOR

Richmond's Industry Has Been Systematically Throttled and Factories Hindered From Locating Here and Employing Thousands of Men—A Glance Backward

Readers of the News have been told of the efforts recently at the ferry hearing before the Railroad Commission of how those who caused that hearing, in an effort to stop such a ferry service being installed also sought to belittle the new soap factory which has bought a big chunk of land on the Ellis Landing & Dock company's tract and intends to build a factory there in the spring. This is only one instance showing the animus of Attorney Pillsbury and the corporate influences he represents. There are many more such instances, and the News proposes now to commence digging them up and presenting them to public view, so the people here, and especially the thousands of newcomers, may know about these things, as they have a right to, and so they can vote more intelligently in future when matters come up for public settlement bearing upon all these things.

The News has been feeling in this matter whatever it can, and it is paid nothing and asks nothing for its efforts along these lines. It desires only to enlighten the people, because they have a right to know the facts, and any public newspaper has a right to present such facts if they are true, unbiased and for the public good.

It is necessary to go back some into history to do this, in order to connect the past with the present, and this we shall do as briefly as possible.

Here is one instance of Richmond's losing a great shipbuilding plant, which subsequently located on San Pedro harbor near Los Angeles, employing many hundreds of men and to the best of our knowledge and belief is there today.

In July of 1917 the editor of the News attended a luncheon of the Richmond Industrial Commission, of which he is a member, in San Francisco, at which a business and manufacturing man of prominence and large interests told how the "underground current," that has blocked Richmond harbor developments and thus retarded all growth, expansion and business, drove his firm, with a large shipbuilding plant, with a large drydock business away from Richmond by a dog-in-the-manger policy that no industry could submit to. He further stated that they would come yet—if the harbor channel is dredged and shipping facilities provided all arrangements to this effect, but upon returning to close the deal he said he found Mr. Bissell dead and himself and company up against the tender mercies of one E. S. Pillsbury, director in and attorney for the Richmond Belt Line Railroad and Dock Company.

Mr. Pillsbury, this gentleman told the Industrial Commission, at once repudiated the tentative agreement with Mr. Bissell, and demanded: First—That the firm bind itself to do $30,000 a year shipping over the Belt Line, or Second—Pay $500,000 cash and a percentage of all its drydock business.

These demands, appearing to the shipbuilding company to be nothing less than extortion, and prohibiting, refused to comply, and soon after located its plant and business at Los Angeles.

COMMUNITY BUILDING

MOVEMENT LAUNCHED

The movement for the erection of a community center as a memorial to Richmond soldiers and sailors who gave up their lives during the great war and furnish a meeting place for those who came back to "stick together," will be launched tonight, when a joint committee appointed by the American Legion and the Community Council reports to the latter body.

The committee will recommend that the city issue bonds to finance the project, according to Lambert Wierda, president of the American Legion.

He is in touch with the Bureau of Memorial Buildings of War Camp Community Service and the committee will have the assistance of the ablest architects in the country in designing the building. He said: "Richmond's Community Center will be a common meeting place. It will be a communal clubhouse for every individual and organization in the community."

"The Community Center will not merely aid in the preservation of existing bonds of association for civil purposes, but will promote greater co-operation and organization among the citizens and foster social contact and friendliness."

possible. This gentleman said that his company entered into a tentative agreement with Mr. Bissell, of the Santa Fe, (well known here as the man who built the Santa Fe), for the purchase of twenty-six acres of land on the waterfront, at $1,000 per acre, for the purpose of erecting thereon a large shipbuilding plant and drydock. He went east and perfected all arrangements to this effect, but upon returning to close the deal he said he found Mr. Bissell dead and himself and company up against the tender mercies of one E. S. Pillsbury, director in and attorney for the Richmond Belt Line Railroad and Dock Company.

Mr. Pillsbury, this gentleman told the Industrial Commission, at once repudiated the tentative agreement with Mr. Bissell, and demanded: First—That the firm bind itself to do $30,000 a year shipping over the Belt Line, or

TEACHERS PAY IS FOUND TOO LOW

Finding of Grand Jury In Its Annual Inspection Recommends That Higher Wages Be Paid In Order That More Efficient Instructors May Be Engaged—Suggestions Made For Entering Patients In Hospital

At the conclusion of its annual inspection of the affairs of the county, the Grand Jury filed with Judge R. H. Lettner a recommendation that teachers of elementary schools receive higher compensation for their work in the following words:

"Investigation shows as a rule pay of elementary school teachers is too low. We believe that by paying better salaries, a higher grade of teachers could be induced to teach in the county schools. In our opinion more time should be spent in teaching fundamentals. As this may not be possible in the smaller schools, we recommend their consolidation where possible, or the engaging of extra teachers to travel from school to school and teach special subjects, leaving the resident teacher to confine herself to the fundamentals."

A new system of payment of fees by patients at the county hospital was recommended, so that fees might be guaranteed. New quarters for the county library in keeping with the magnitude of its work was advised and the library found to be one of the best equipped in the State.

A recommendation that will be saving of county funds was to the effect that a purchasing agent be engaged, through whose hands would pass all transactions connected with the purchasing of supplies. Such an agent could devote his time to the securing of the best rates on supplies.

The allowance for the feeding of prisoners was asked to be increased from 37 1/2 to 45 cents.

Those serving on the Grand Jury were A. C. Gehring, foreman; L. E. Stoddard, secretary; Mrs. Charles J. Wood, Mrs. T. J. McGinty, Mrs. Mary Peres, A. C. Burdick, Sara L. Lohse, May I. Curry, Geo. B. Fredenburg, H. T. Brown, A. C. Cameron and Robert Harrison.

An open installation of the ladies of the Spanish War Veterans will be held on January 10, at which the San Francisco drill team will put on the flag work.

Dr. J. B. Spalding has returned from a trip to Fresno.

RICHMOND POINTERS

If any sensible person was building a house to live in or a store to do business in, and had spent many thousands of dollars upon it, and had it nearly ready to move into, except, perhaps, the roof, and had run out of money, what would he do? Let it lie and go to rack and ruin in the elements, or go to the bank and borrow the small amount necessary to make it habitable? What would you do under such circumstances? That explains the Richmond municipal harbor situation exactly. Over a million has been expended and less than $400,000 is needed, half of which the government will furnish, besides doing all the work and keeping up the future repairs. Think this over between now and spring.

LABOR COUNCIL ELECTS

ALL ANNUAL OFFICERS

Election of officers of the Contra Costa County Central Labor Council brought out a large number of delegates at the meeting Wednesday night in the Labor Temple.

Representatives of the Retail Clerks' Union appeared before the Council relative to the endorsement of its agreement for the year with the merchants of Richmond. The agreement was presented to the Council several weeks ago and placed in the hands of the executive committee for consideration. On motion it was voted to take the agreement out of the hands of the committee and give the endorsement of the Council.

James Dolson, secretary of the United Hat and Cap Workers Union, representing the Labor Defense League of California, spoke at length upon the Criminal Syndicalism law, which has been adopted by this and many other states, setting forth the injustice of this legislation toward organized labor. "The right of Federal judge to issue the employer an injunction against a union or its officials denying the workman the right to strike, which is included in the Syndicalism law," spoke Dolson, "is an aim to crush organized labor and the repeal of this law is of the utmost importance to every workman in California." On motion it was voted that the Labor Council endorse and render its assistance to the Labor Defense League in its work to protect the interests of labor.

By request Mr. Dolson will speak before the Potters' Union of Richmond on Monday evening, January 19th.

A communication from the San Francisco Labor Council states that the Emporium, San Francisco's large department store, is now on the unfair list.

The following officers were elected for a term of six months: Fred W. Cramer, president; F. Woods, vice-president; Jules Scarcellaux, recording secretary; Joe Leber, financial secretary; Joe Sharp, sergeant-at-arms. P. T. movement of Richmond.

NEW POTTERY IS GREAT SUCCESS

Three Y. Pottery at 22nd and Channel Has Been In Operation Since August and Is Now Coming Into Its Own After Several Months of Patient and Unadvertised Effort

Tucked away behind the high fence opposite the Golden West Brewery at Twenty-second and Channel avenue, is the Three-Y Pottery company, composed of two men who have been working since August to perfect and put on the market a good commercial product in vitreous china for the soft drink contained trade.

They have leased the plant of the old Pacific Carbon company, chiefly because it contained an unusually good furnace for the firing of their products. Their clay is imported from California and from Southern California, and worked in the tonnage by S. P. Dacey, a former employee of the Pacific Portland factory, and a resident of Richmond, living at 1327 North avenue.

Dacey has taken into partnership with him George W. Brady, another potter of Berkeley. Together they have risked their own money in getting established and in perfecting their ideas of what a soft drink container should be.

On New Year's eve they fired their first oven full, which turned out to be all that they desired. In addition to their own product they have filled several orders for pottery for investors and dispensers around the bay, one of them being for a specially designed fountain for the Fern Test, which has not yet been finished.

Both partners show considerable confidence that their work will be a success, as they have taken advantage of a field in which the demand has greatly exceeded the supply for several years. Both are experienced men with the knowledge of their art and of the requirements of patience in waiting for business success that speak well for their future.

It is not their intention to form a corporation or to go to the public for money as long as they can fill the orders received without the need of enlargement of the plant.

Duffy was elected trustee for 19 months.

President Cramer thanked the members for his re-election and asked all unions affiliated with the Council to attend meetings regular and by so doing will be rendering valuable assistance in the labor movement of Richmond.

THE PAPER
 WORKING

SWAT THE JOBBER

Recent investigations by the government and others have demonstrated the fact that the jobber is the worst fly in the H. C. L. ointment, and the logical deduction, then, is that he has got to be swatted. The manufacturer has got to rearrange his business so he can sell direct to the retailer, in the interest of his own welfare and that of the general public. Hundreds of instances show that where the manufacturer has been compelled to advance his price, say twenty percent, because of increased price of production, the jobber, in handing that raise on down to the retailer, adds another ten percent to it, making it thirty percent, and with no corresponding increase in expense to the jobber, who frequently does not touch the stuff of all.

Many manufacturers have finally got wise to this situation and are now arranging to deal direct with the retailer, which they should have done long ago.

APPEAL TO UNREASON

A circular is at hand from the "Appeal to Reason," that red rag of anarchy published by virtue of a sleepy government all wrapped around with red tape, and a long suffering public, at Girard, Kansas, offering to sell its Bolshevik books at four for a dollar. Among them is the philosophy of "Neitsche," as much to blame as any other one thing for turning the German nation crazy and bringing on the world war. Among them, also, beside soviet doctrine, is a number of dirty books which would have also come by express as the mails would not handle them. We remember of getting a personal appeal from J. A. Wayland, founder of that paper, years ago, asking for a dollar to help keep him out of the penitentiary, and of replying that we would take pleasure in doubling the ante for the purpose of putting him there for life, where he belonged.

READ LESS RANCID ROT

In the Hearst magazine the heroine of one of the main featured stories, made much of in picture and language because of her youth, beauty and sweetness, meets a stranger in a city park, who comes up to her and deliberately invites her to lunch. She goes with him to a restaurant where they have a $5 dinner, and then to an assignation house where she sells herself for $25, two ten dollar bills and a five, with all the other disgusting details, all because she needs the money to help out a sick friend.

Now we respectfully submit that Mr. Hearst or any other man who publishes such damnable and degrading perorations of prostitution and sends it out into the homes of the people to pollute the morals of our young men and young girls deserve the lash of public condemnation, and that the doors of every respectable home should be barred against his magazine. Also that any man or woman who buys it is lacking in common decency and self respect.

One might just as well revel in rot and reek in filth of the "Boccaccio Decameron," "Three Weeks," "Mrs. Warren's Profession," and "Jim-Jam Gems" kind and have done with it, the latter being so low as to be barred entirely from the United States mails.

Wah! Pass the ammonia.

HE SAID A MOUTHFUL

Herbert C. Hoover, former Food Administrator, in a statement made public recently, urged that under no circumstances should further loans be made to any foreign nation out of the Treasury of the United States, but that all future commercial relations between Europe and America be confined to the ordinary business processes.

As far as commercial credits are concerned, Hoover pointed out that France and England still have on hand sufficient foreign securities to cover their needs, while Italy can help herself by demobilizing her armies and getting down to a peace-time basis.

As for the food situation, Hoover asserted that Austria alone is facing a critical situation and that as a whole "no such situation confronted us as last year at this time and there is no ground for hysteria on either side of the Atlantic," and he added "that the time is nearing when this country must cease to carry the economic burden of Europe except through charity and ordinary business processes."

Hoover certainly said something, and we heartily say amen! And yet Lord High-Cock-lorum-Somebody-or-Other is over here now from England to borrow the mere trifle of thirty-five billions of dollars from us, "to keep the world from chaos," he says.

What he means is that England wants to get hold of all of our money that we are sucker enough to let loose of, and as far as this worm is concerned he is one that does not intend to buy any more bonds, stamps or anything else if the money is to be sent to foreign countries. There is a whole nest of niggers in this woodpile, and it is high time the American people smoked them out.

THINKOGRAPHS

There's little poetry in this,
 But much truth, you will own:
 The hand that pulls the trigger is
 The hand that rocks the throne.

On cold winter days the thought that the future life may be steam heated is less terrifying.

Adam forfeited Paradise for a woman, and while the price is high millions since have bravely and smilingly taken the chance.

Listening to a jazz fox-trot on a phonograph makes one wonder how many tin cans the fox had tied to his tail when he trotted.

These chaps that are always going away for a week and must have something the matter with their head—or is it the other end?

Many a lawyer's speech carries conviction with it, as is proven by the fact that the defendant gets five years.

History seems to indicate that from a physical point of view we are inferior to prehistoric man, but, come to think of it, we believe we would rather be inferior than prehistoric.

College is a place where a youth discovers that the moon is not made of green cheese and learns to believe that the world is waiting for him. It is—with an ax.

The male secretary bird hatches the eggs and rears the young. This would indicate that the female secretary bird inclines largely toward suffrage.

The dispatches note that a party died in San Francisco from over-exertion and too strenuous exercise. We can see where we have got to quit writing these editorials.

If the parents of Congressman Berger, of Milwaukee, had consulted him about being born, he never would have consented to come into any such world as this one is.

The billboards are still glaring out into the umbrient atmosphere like a sore thumb on a frosty morning, screaming of Brown's Bile Beans for Bilious Boobs.

The stage is getting to be a deluge of French sewage, glorifying infidelity, making a jest of marriage and sneering at virtue as rustic prudery. The morals of the footlight favorites are as scanty as their clothing—gauze veil, anklet and a dab of paint.

An advertisement in this paper works hard while you sleep, or maybe while you loaf, same as the interest on your note in the bank does. The busy bee is not in that class for industry at all, but for honey.

Legislative enactment is getting to be the biggest joke of the country. That saintliness and morality can be mauled into people via revised statutes, and humanity be thus renovated, is an hallucination much indulged in by those of political proclivities and anemic intellect.

What would you do with an extra hour and a half each day?

Would you spend it in reading? In sewing? Certainly you could find plenty of constructive things to do.

If you are dealing with a Cash-and-Carry store, you are losing at least an hour and a half a day which might be given to some of those other things you would so like to do.

Think of the time you consume dressing to go marketing. Consider the time wasted in waiting your turn; the time lost while you are having those packages wrapped. And then the time required to go to and from the store!

Yes, you would easily save at least an hour and a half a day by dealing with a grocer who makes a specialty of service.

We are well equipped to fill your orders promptly and deliver them to you in double-quick time. All you need to do is to pick up the phone, and give us a list of the things you need. Think of the time and trouble saved.

This is how we know. We test everything we recommend. In addition to our own success with RYZON we know that the leading hotels, the best clubs, the highest paid chefs and food experts use RYZON. It is well named "The Perfect Baking Powder" and economical at 40c per pound.

patriotic the attitude of senators who would defeat it, directly or by nullifying reservations, were unanimously adopted today by the Democratic national committee, in session here.

The "arrogant" Republican leadership of the Senate was denounced as having earned the "contempt of the world" by throttling the treaty for seven months, and the Senate was called upon to "quit playing politics" with the question of ratification.

Reviewing the legislative record of the two Wilson administrations, the resolutions also expressed gratification that the President was regaining health after a breakdown "due largely to his efforts for world peace."

EUROPE DOES NOT NEED U. S. MONEY

CHICAGO, Jan. 8.—Opposition to the plan of Sir George Paish, British economist, that the United States underwrite a $35,000,000, 000 European loan was voiced here today by Lord Leverhulme, one of the foremost manufacturers in England.

"Trying to solve Europe's finances by borrowing from the United States," he said, "is like a man trying to lift a mortgage by borrowing. The only and proper way for him to get relief is to go to work and be thrifty."

"England is in better shape right now than she was at the close of the Napoleonic wars 160 years ago. And Europe is not bankrupt. There is no necessity for borrowing from the United States."

$10,000 WHISKY IS STOLEN IN S. F.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 8.—Striding two watchmen who had been engaged as the result of a previous liquor burglary, a group of robbers broke into a government bonded warehouse and escaped with ten barrels of high-proof whisky, valued at $10,000, last night. Liquor to the amount of $700 was stolen from a private warehouse also and the revenue officials believe the same men were responsible for both thefts.

and was prepared by Franklin D'Oller, national commander of the legion. The statement follows:

The attitude of the American Legion toward organized labor is exactly the same as its attitude toward all groups of American citizens who are interested in a square deal for all in the maintenance of law and order and the protection of the institutions handed down to us by our forefathers.

The preamble of our constitution expresses very clearly the purpose of the American Legion.

How did Richmond come to be? You may have a hazy idea, but if you read Evelyn Wells' daily history of Richmond in The San Francisco Call you will know the facts for yourself.

Inside Facts
It's what's inside your battery that makes it live long or wear out quickly.
Inferior insulation wears out before the plates do, and re-insulation is necessary.
Threaded Rubber Insulation greatly postpones and almost always entirely eliminates the need of re-insulation; makes a battery last much longer under equal conditions, and reduces the liability to any other kind of repairs.
It's the one latest battery improvement in ten years—demonstrated now by four years of use. You can't afford not to know about it, for some day you'll need a new battery.
Call and let us tell you all about it.

ED RICHMOND THEATRE

VIOLA DANA PLAYS IN 'FALSE EVIDENCE'

Viola Dana, the winsome little Metro star who will be seen in the role of Madelon in "False Evidence," the feature to be shown at the Richmond Theatre today, took a trip to the island of Santa Cruz to "shoot" some scenes for the play.

These pictures show the beautiful semi-tropic island which is one of the garden spots of the Pacific ocean and which has been called an "earthly Paradise" by those who have visited it. Added to these scenes of beauty will be others of rural grandeur showing the mighty redwoods of California. To film the big trees the company went on a two week trip into the heart of the redwood country and camped out like woodsmen, for the primitive village near which they were situated had no accommodations to offer the players. Miss Dana voted it one of the most enjoyable experiences of her long picture career.

Mile Laville To Sing Here

Nightingale Laville, the dainty singer of French songs, who charmed a Richmond audience two months ago, will return under the auspices of the Community Service and give a concert on January 29th for the benefit of the chorist fund.

Her program will consist of some of the songs she sang to the soldiers in the trenches and some classic renditions that suit her well trained voice.

Miss Laville came to this country as a refugee during the war, all the men of her family having given their lives to the cause. She lives in Berkeley with her mother.

RAYMOND E. SCHRADER WEDS LILLY THORSON

News has just been received of the wedding at Fairfield on December 27 of Raymond E. Schrader, son of L. H. Schrader, and Miss Lilly Thorson, daughter of T. K. Thorson of 240 Third street.

The wedding culminates a pre-war romance. Mrs. Schrader was formerly employed at the Jones store. The young people are at present living with the bride's parents.

The Delphin club met Tuesday afternoon at the Richmond clubhouse and installed Mrs. W. A. Boone as president; Mrs. B. X. Tucker as vice-president and Mrs. Carey Troy as secretary.

Miss Alleen Greenwood gave an interesting talk on the Modern Drama.

Thomas Oliver of 2323 Clinton avenue died at an early hour yesterday morning at the age of 66.

The funeral will be held from the Curry undertaking parlors this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. H. K. Sanborn officiating. Interment will be in Sunset View cemetery.

Oliver is survived by a widow and ten children: Mrs. Elmer Bovey, Mrs. William J. Oliver, Thomas Oliver, Mrs. Ruth Oster, Mrs. Lilian Danbacker, Fern Dora, Myrtle Lloyd and Alta Oliver. He was a native of England.

As a farewell to Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Frymire of 1226 Nevin avenue, the Ladies' Aid of Wesley church surprised them at their home last night with a party at which an impromptu program was furnished by those present, the Frymires being presented with a cut glass cheese and coffee set.

WOMEN UNSAFE ON OAKLAND STREETS

Within a few blocks of her home, 18-year-old Gladys Grimes, pretty telephone operator, was attacked last night by a man who beat her on the head with a heavy instrument and sought to "drag her from the street into a lot." Half senseless from the blow, she still gave desperate battle to her assailant and succeeded at last in freeing herself from his grasp. Today she is confined to her home in a serious condition from shock.

Miss Grimes lives at 3418 School street, and the assault occurred at Thirty-fifth and Penniman avenues, two blocks away. She believes her assailant was a negro and says he was of very large and heavy build.

Two days ago a young Chinese telephone operator was seized and carried away in an auto and assaulted on a lonely road, and hardly a week goes by but what some similar crime is recorded.

It is about time the people of Oakland were either getting a police force that merited the name or organizing a vigilante committee supplied with plenty of good strong heavy rope.

The Oakland Daily Post now covers all of the important Richmond news daily with its own correspondent. You can have the Post and The San Francisco Call delivered for the small sum of 55c monthly.

What Richmond Needs

First, the completion of the work already done on its harbor, in order to save the large amount already expended and to make of Richmond a great harbor and world's shipping port. The people will be asked to vote sufficient aid in the spring to do this, and if it is given the Federal Government aid to the amount of half the amount needed can still be secured.

Second, A change in the form of municipal government under and by virtue of which those who make the laws and administer the affairs of the city shall not be in the employ or under the dictation of any corporation, firm or anybody else save and except the City of Richmond.

Third, a direct ferry service between Richmond and San Francisco, so thousands of local and other passengers will not have to travel in their autos or otherwise ten or twelve miles out of their way to go or come, and placing Richmond on the map for through travel instead of a way station on an indirect route to and from nowhere.

Fourth, that at least two thousand more citizens join the Chamber of Commerce, and that every man, woman and child in Richmond make a New Year resolution to work and help in every possible way in the upbuilding of

A Greater Richmond
